DEDICATION

Sister Julie . . . LOVES

A woman . . .

the woman . . .

our woman.

Students' quotes

Anyone who knows Sr. Julie recognizes her honesty, tact and humor . . . a person with whom one can feel extremely close, without forgetting respect and admiration . . .

Sister Julie means something special to just about every student on campus . . . regardless of whether or not that girl studied Theology under her . . . many of our first memories of Sr. Julie were during Freshman year . . . she made Theology a thought process . . . not something we were told and expected to repeat . . . her love of God seemed to augment our own . . . it was never a chore to attend her classes . . .

Her interests in the students extend far beyond the limits of the classroom . . . she always seems to find the time to stop and chat . . . whether it be between classes or over a leisurely cup of coffee . . .

Wherever she goes you'll inevitably find her accompanied by a group of students ... her advice is often sought, in matters personal,
social ...

and academic,
like this group of Juniors,
before the Theology
final ...

There are many facets
of Sister Julie ...
one of the most appropriate words
to describe her
seems to be "genuine"...
she has a genuine
interest in everyone with whom she has contact ... as though each encounter was an opportunity to share ...

This sharing seems to consist of learning
and loving ...
learning about the unique quality of each person she meets and loving this person for the distinctness
of self ...

Sr. Julie is an extremely deep, but a very warm and sensitive woman ... a complex person,
yet one who draws admiration by her gentleness
and true
simplicity ...

ADMINISTRATION

The administration personnel–the silent ones who are generally hidden by the work itself—the ones who venture, who lead, who discover where the road lies, and upon whose courage and ability depends the success of the future.

brightest vision of service—the work of forming our women to a future of service—our founders and pioneers dreamed their dream and labored mightily that Regis'

INTELLECTUAL LIFE

The things taught in schools and colleges
are not an education—
But the means of education.

Emerson

Mrs. Lisa Brandt

The communications division of any academic institution is not only as important to the student body as courses and professors,

The Regis College Language Lab . . .

Mrs. McNally
Mrs. Duffy
Sr. Macrina, librarians ...

Sr. Ricarda, librarian ...

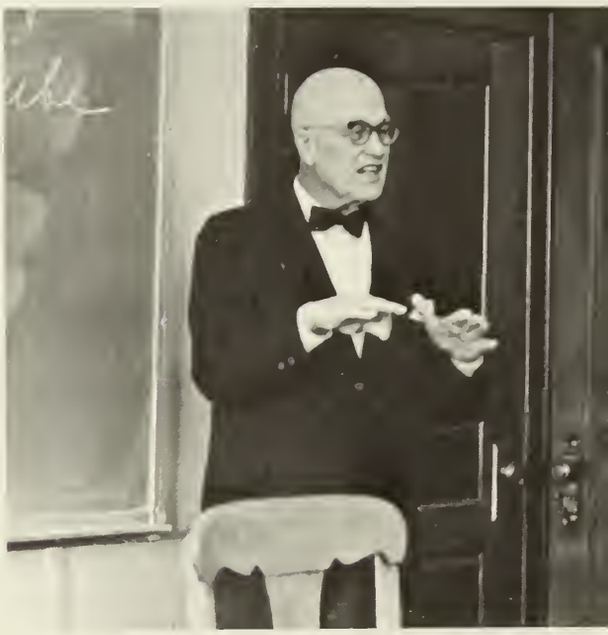
but is an integral part of the learning process.
These are the people behind the functions ...

Sr. James Anna, librarian ...

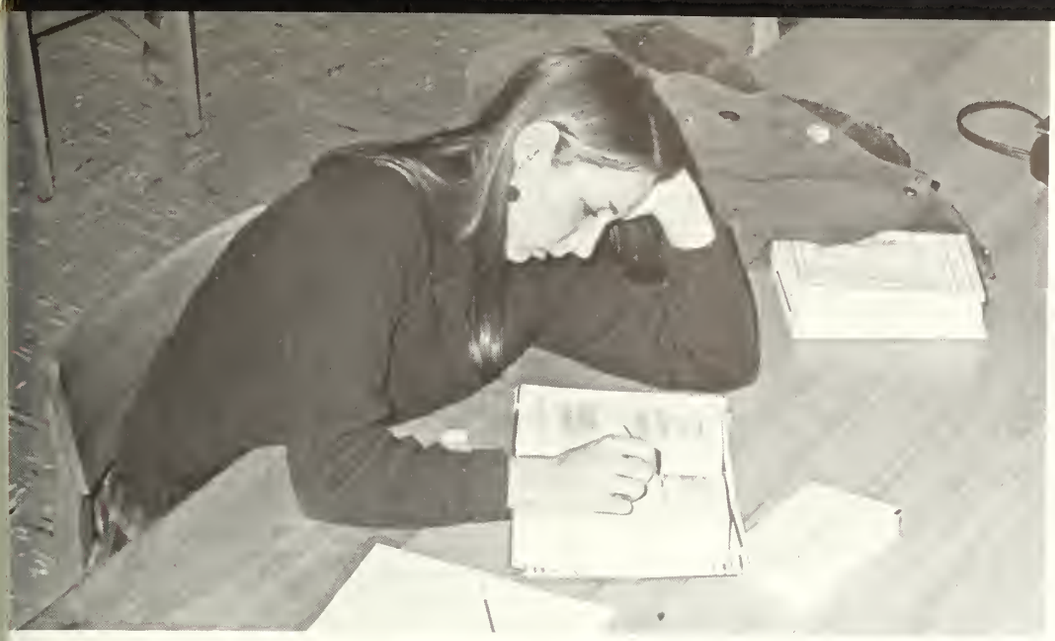
Sr. Fortunata, librarian.

The intellectual life of a campus is as diverse as the facets of interest in a student's mind ... the reception of new knowledge obtained at an art lecture ...

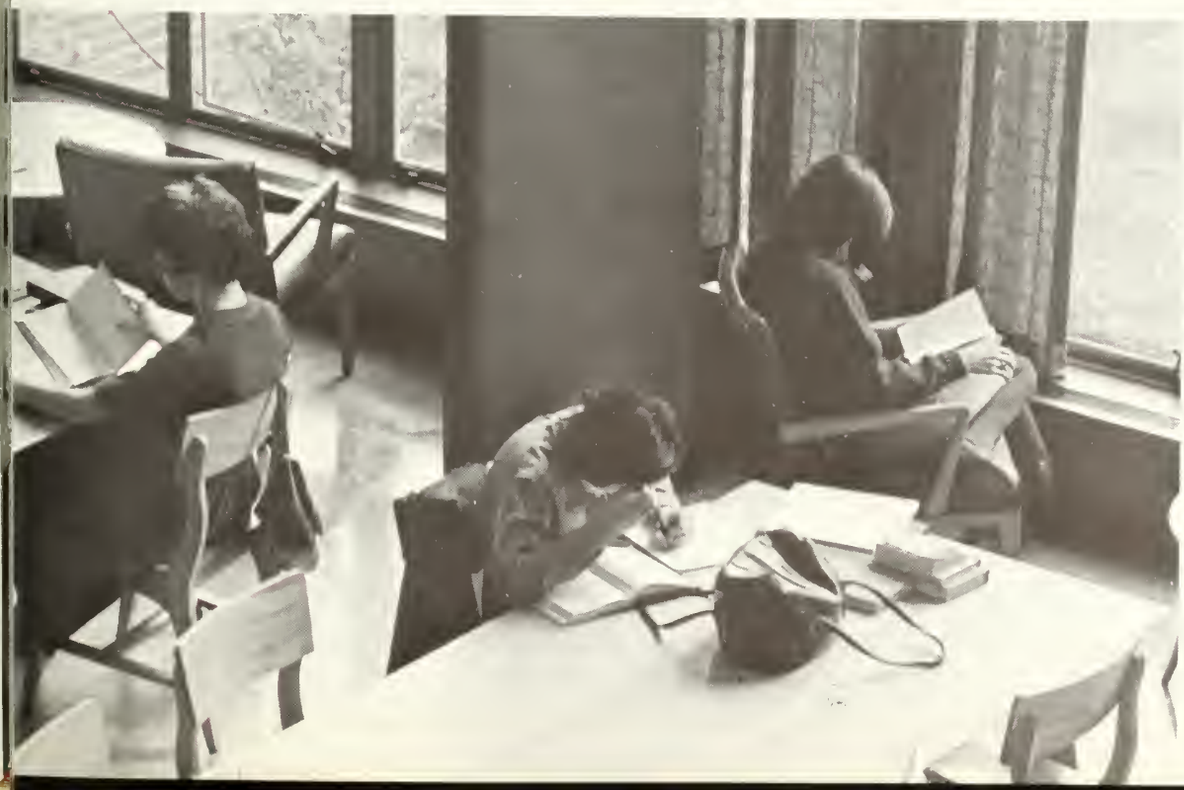


or perhaps just a class discussion ... Dr. Paul Boulanger, French professor, captures the interest of his students by recognizing this diversity—his classes are usually interspersed with historical, etymological or even scientific facts. He often states: "Is this a course in History? No. But the information should be part of every student's academic background."

Marcia Comley, '68



Yet the successive reception and utilization of this knowledge still requires the responsibility of the individual student . . .

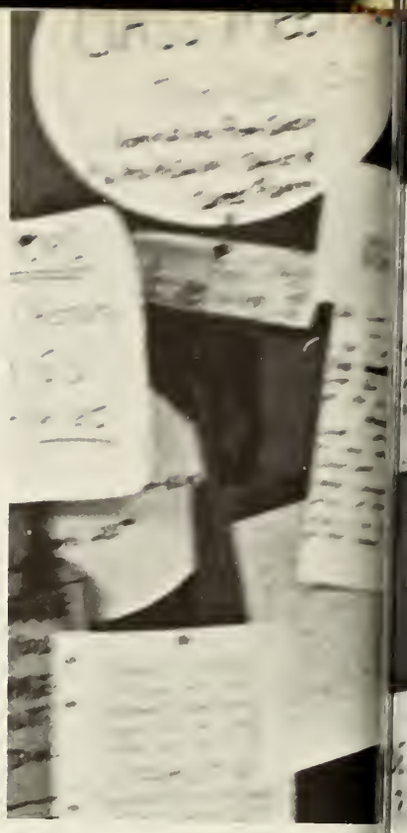


the student who, as future parent or teacher, must eventually activate this knowledge in the society for which she is being prepared to govern . . .

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving,
Still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Psalm of Life
Longfellow



STUDENT GOVERNMENT

It's been a long, hard day . . . classes . . . tests . . . a paper due next Tuesday . . . 4:00, you're through . . . almost . . . somebody tells you that there's a Student Association Meeting in the Union . . . not that bad if you're a resident . . . afterwards . . . back to the dorm, or upstairs to supper . . . harder if you're a day-hop . . . got to get a ride . . . skip the meeting and catch her before she goes . . . nobody will miss you . . . but you missed the last one . . . they couldn't pass a measure because you and a few others weren't there . . . stop and think about it . . . What is the purpose of Student Government and what is your role in it?

It is a time to Look . . .
to Listen . . .

a time to Question . . .
and to Consider . . .

A look at Corrine Coté, '70, former Freshman Class President . . . present Sophomore Resident Rep . . . and in charge of the Volkswagen Bus . . . a source of aid and consternation for many . . . aid . . . when it runs . . . and grief when it won't . . .

These are the people who represent the student body at the weekly Council meetings . . . Thursday nights . . . from 6:00 to ?. . .

A time to propose and amend . . . question amendments . . . a time when decisions are neither easily nor quickly made . . .

Committees and comps . . .
clubs and constitutions . . .
rules and regulations . . .
politics and progress . . . the progress of a college in relation to itself and other such academic institutions . . .
for the present and the future . . .

These are the leaders
of Student Government,
but certainly not
its whole . . .
the Student Government is each individual student on every college campus in the world . . .

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IS PEOPLE.

These are some of the faces of student government—an institution only as strong as its individual members . . . a body whose ideas and objectives are as numerous as those of which it is composed . . .

DORM LIFE

I told her she had no choice
Than to be my friend.

What else could we be but friends?

In the semi-darkness of the rehearsal room the old tale of man's inhumanity to his brother is retold in Sr. Gretchen's play, "Genesis" . . . from the story of Creation to the slaughter of Abel.

The hands of the director freeze, after a thrust of creative tension, in an effort to make the cast feel what she feels and to have them hear the music and tonality of words she knows instinctively to be right.

All meet here with us, finally: the uptown, way-west, den of inconstant moralities.
Faces up: all
my faces turned up to the sun.

1.

Summer's mist nods against the trees
till distance grows in my head
like an antique armada
dangled motionless from the horizon.

Unbelievable changes. Restorations.
Each day like my nina's fan
tweaking the flat air
back and forth till the room
is a blur of flowers.

Intimacy takes on human form ...
and sheds it like a hide.
Lips, eyes.

tiny lace coughs
reflected on night's stealth.

2.

Tonight, one star.
eye of the dragon.
The Void

signaling.
Reminding someone
it's still there.

3.

It's these empty seconds
I fill with myself. Each a recognition. A complete utterance.

Here, it is color; motion;
the feeling of dazzling beauty Flight.

As the trapeze rider leans with arms spread wondering at the bar's delay.

Ostriches and Grandmothers
Le Roi Jones

GRADUATION

Every life is many days,
day after day.
We walk through ourselves,
meeting robbers, ghosts, giants
old men, young men, wives, widows brothers-in-love.
But always meeting ourselves.

Ulysses
James Joyce

Look through the fence . . .
a sneakered English
professor is guarding base . . . the Treasurer of the College is Umpire . . .
the Chaplain is catcher . . .

Sr. St. Theresa

what else, but the Faculty Baseball Game?

Sr. Ellenice
Fr. Burns

"The winner of Senior Hoop-Rolling
is the first to be married."

It's tradition, something that has occurred since the first graduating class . . . is it that one final act of adolescence, or is there really something to it? You rather hope that there is.

Dr. Mary Bryan

Fr. Burns, reading prayer

When the time came for me to leave the confines of my home to come to college,
I felt as though I had been introduced to a whole new world of people
and ideas...

Interior of St. Julia's Church

Richard Cardinal Cushing

Sr. Jeanne d'Arc
Bishop Minihan

I set out with independence in my hand and responsibility on my shoulders . . . I thought I was on my own, at last . . But now, now that I am about to leave, I know that these past four years have just been a preparation and these people have been simply an extension of my home and a link to the world of Maturity and Wisdom . . .

"In My Life"

There are places I'll remember all my life,
though some have changed,
Some forever, some for better, some have gone,
and some remained.
All these places have their moment with lovers
and friends I still can recall ...

Though I know I'll never lose affection, for people and things that went before ...

I know I'll often stop and think about them ...
But, as I stop and think about them, these years cannot be relegated to a past event,
but to part of the continuum of life ...
for this is not the beginning of an end,
it's just the end of a beginning ...

Miss Barbara Jordan
Administrator of Alumnae Activities

Mrs. Marie Barbano Tassinari
President of the Alumnae Association

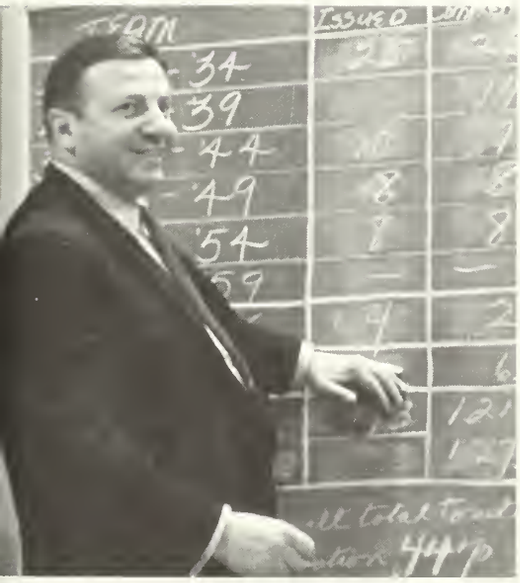
ALUMNAE

I wonder what it will be like . . . thirty or maybe even forty years from now, if I return? Will I recognize those with whom I spent four years of my life . . . or will I ever see any of them again?

There will be memories . . . a reliving of things half-remembered . . . but, if I return . . . what will the college be like . . . what will the girls be like?

The alumnae return . . . from all areas and from all classes . . . Ann Lawler '67 to a graduate of more than twenty-five years . . . for a Holly Tea or for a buffet . . . renewal of old friendships . . . admiring slides of a new baby . . . but the Social is not the only aspect of the Alumnae Association . . . the alumnae return to work . . . to be of service to a College that was of service to them . . . to aid in its growth . . . to help in the Development Fund . . .

Alumnae reaction . . . mixed emotions, while listening to speaker Alfano . . . amused . . . confused . . . bemused . . .



Alfano at work . . . designating . . . figuring . . . computing . . . his lectures were anything but dull.

The face of the pivot of the Alumnae Association . . . Mrs. Marie Barbano Tassinari enumerating . . . organizing . . . her efforts aided the Regis Development Fund in attaining a goal higher than the million mark.
